

UDFS brings home victory from the East Coast Championships!

For the second year in a row, Delaware takes the East Coast title! UDFS had one of the largest scores in recent seasons with 183 points. Boston University came in second and Dartmouth skated away with the bronze. Sacred Heart followed with the pewter. Top four teams in each region will compete at the U.S. Intercollegiate Championships hosted by UD, April 12-14th.

“If we maintain the supportive atmosphere that we had at Penn State, I’m excited to see what we do at Nationals. This team is fully capable of getting our national title back,” Secretary, Emily Joseph.

Alannah Binotto: Fourth place, International Pattern Dance

Annabel Will: First place, Intermediate Short; First Place, Intermediate Long

Brooke Tripp: First place, Juvenile Short; First Place, Juvenile Excel; First place, Medium team maneuvers

Brynn Dayton: First place, Preliminary Excel; First place, Low team maneuvers

Codie Hazen: First place, Medium Team maneuvers

Emily Joseph: Third place, Juvenile short; First place, Juvenile Excel; First place, low team maneuvers

Evan Walter: First place, senior pattern dance; First place, Low team maneuvers

Evelyn Welsh: Fifth place, Gold pattern dance

Georgia Halmo: First place, low team maneuvers

Hannah Gottfried: First place, Junior short; Second place, Preliminary pattern dance; First place, Juvenile pattern dance; Second place, Junior Excel; Second place, High team maneuvers

Janelle Skaden: First place, Medium team maneuvers

Julia Iovino: Second place, Senior Excel

Lindsey Jaeger: First place, medium team maneuvers

Lauren Watson: Eighth place, Junior championship

Leah Krauskopf: First place, international pattern dance; Second place, Senior Solo free dance; Second place, High team maneuvers

McKenna Schindler: Third place, Novice Short

Paige Conners: Second place, Junior short; Fourth place, preliminary pattern dance; First place, Junior Championship

Tony Lu: Second place, High team maneuvers; First place, Senior Championship Men

Sam Puhl: Second place, Senior Championship

Yuanshi Jin: First place, junior pattern dance; Third place, senior pattern dance

Zoe Gobeille: Third place, Junior Excel

